Happy New Year, Intown!

Can I get an amen for afternoons (or whole days) spent meandering through Intown's quaint neighborhoods? Recently, my Atlanta-based sister took our family on a little tour of her favorite part of town. We started in Grant Park at Zoo Atlanta—early enough to beat the field trip crowds that start right before lunchtime. We refueled across the street from Oakland Cemetery at Mezcalito's Cocina, where my kids' minds were blown over a Pancake Sandwich and us equally smitten with the savory Huevos de Birria between rejuvenating sips of a creamy Carajillo Rojo. We ended the afternoon along the Atlanta Beltline to soak up both sunshine and shopping (and maybe a little more sipping).

With the return of My Intown this year, we're committed to sharing more of that good stuff—including the best of the best from this neighborhood with you. Starting on page 14, meet the businesses that you and your community nominated and voted as the Best of Intown. From doctors and wellness services to home improvement professionals, restaurants and more, these are the people you trust with the things that matter most. Meet the entire 2026 class at atlantabestmedia.com.

In this issue, I am also excited to introduce you to Chef Demetrius Brown, whose local fame for Bread & Butterfly and Heritage Supper Club drives our excitement for his new brick-and-mortar coming this year. Read more about what inspires his flavors on page 13.

Enjoy all of the fun things to do over the next few pages—and there's even more online. I look forward to exploring both with you, doing everything Intown has to offer.

EndoLift is a minimally invasive laser procedure that allows us to

LIFT, TIGHTEN, AND DISSOLVE FAT...
ALL OVER THE FACE AND BODY.

What is EndoLift? EndoLift is a non-ablative laser procedure that is used to remove unwanted fat and tighten skin.

EndoLift has over 15 years of study data and is becoming the nonsurgical treatment of choice in the U.S.

What areas can be treated? We can treat all over the face and body—jowls, under eye bags, nasolabial folds, chin fat, neck, arms, stomach, knees...

Who is a candidate? Anyone can be a candidate, but an in person consultation is required prior to treatment.

Downtime? Downtime depends upon the patient and area treated, but most typically, minimal.

Results? Can see some immediacy with results, improving and peaking at 3-5 months

How many treatments will I need? The overwhelming majority of patients are one and done.

my Food Faves

Tried and true or new to you

By Colleen McNally Arnett

1. Get a taste of the tropics without leaving Atlanta at Wylie & Rum. This laid-back kitchen and rummery serves Floribbean-inspired dishes. Try the Miami Cuban: La Segunda Bakery bread stuffed with mojo-marinated pork, sweet ham, Swiss cheese, yellow mustard and pickles, then pressed until crispy. 45 Moreland Ave. SE, Ste. 300, wylieandrum.com

2. The omakase-style Tiger Sun is among the Beltline's hottest bars—and not just because it's inside a refurbished tour bus. Now on the "Goodfellas" menu, enjoy Housemade Mozzarella Sticks. Using fresh mozzarella, Italian spices, herbs and breadcrumbs, the fried favorite finger food is plated on a pomodoro sauce with San Marzano tomatoes, then topped with Osetra caviar and copious Parmigiano Reggiano. 904 Memorial Dr. SE, tigersunatl.com

3. Satisfy your sweet tooth with scoops of Van Leeuwen Ice Cream. Purists will appreciate the not-so-simple perfection of Vanilla Bean. Created with high-quality ingredients, like cold-ground, whole Tahitian vanilla beans, milk, cream, cane sugar, egg yolks and vanilla extract, this anything-but-boring flavor has been named the best by The New York Times. 619 Ponce De Leon Ave. NE, Ste. B109, vanleeuwenicecream.com

4. Football season may be over, but luckily, it's easy to find delicious wings in Atlanta all year round. Head to the Poncey-Highland mainstay Sweet Auburn Barbecue for Smoked Wings tossed in your choice of sauce, whether the local favorite—lemon pepper wet—or a spicy Szechuan influenced by sibling owners Howard and Anita Hsu's Asian roots. 656 N. Highland Ave. NE, sweetauburnbbq.com

5. For a healthful start to the new year, the stylish LaRayia's Bodega is a must-stop at Ponce City Market. Try the bright and fresh Citrus Anti-Salad—a colorful mix of greens, juicy supremed grapefruit, crispy fried capers, shaved red onion and toasted seeds, all tossed together in a sweet-tangy burnt honey vinaigrette. 675 Ponce de Leon Ave. NE, instagram.com/larayiasbodega

PROFILE

Demetrius Brown

EXECUTIVE CHEF • ENTREPRENEUR • FATHER

By Colleen McNally Arnett

Born into a Trinidadian family and raised between Georgia and Rhode Island, Demetrius Brown has discovered a deep connection with his familial roots through cooking. He's worked in many of Atlanta's top kitchens, but after Covid shut down the restaurant where he was working, Brown launched his own pop-up, Heritage Supper Club, to keep exploring the African Diaspora on the plate. Today, he's the celebrated chef/co-owner of the popular Inman Park bistro, Bread & Butterfly, has appeared on Food Network and is planning a brick-and-mortar home for Heritage this year in Summerhill.

What is your earliest memory that first sparked your love for food?

Demetrius Brown: In elementary school, we lived right across the street from a Chinese restaurant and got takeout from there all the time. Even though we were on the same street, they were vastly different in the way they approached food and the way they cooked. That was when my curiosity first began about how different food actually is.

What was the catalyst for your first pop-up?

DB: One day, I just sat down and drew out a business plan. I started working at Georgia Boy, and the food that Joey Ward was doing really inspired me. I wanted to take that same approach, so that's where the concept of Heritage really started to be a full-fledged tasting menu. The first dinner was inspired by all of my food memories, from eating cucumbers on my aunt's porch to making a dish that my grandmother would make, but doing my own twist on it.

Why is Summerhill the right neighborhood for Heritage?

DB: Summerhill was always at the top of my list from the very beginning because we wanted to be somewhere that had cultural significance not only in Atlanta, but also for the Black population. Being surrounded by so many great restaurants in Summerhill is a culinarian's dream. We wanted to add to that experience with something that we felt was missing.

What motivates you to keep growing?

DB: The messages I get from younger cooks or older cooks who say they look up to me—that I'm inspiring or they enjoy the kind of work I do—all of that is why I decided to keep pushing myself forward. I want to show them that as long as you put your mind to it and are a steward of the culinary world, you can achieve anything that you want to.

Where can people find you most?

DB: I'm always at the same places. I really enjoy Breaker Breaker—my son and I go there more often than I'd like to admit. And then I really like Pollo Primo on Moreland Avenue. My wife and I love the chicken and the elotes, but the churros are honestly the reason I go.

Doing Good in the Hood

Lend a hand to local causes

1 Work with Intown Cares to push back against homelessness and hunger with boots-on-the-ground action across intown Atlanta. Volunteers fuel the mission to help neighbors secure stable housing by packing pantry donations, delivering groceries and hot meals, offering Spanish translation and more. Team up today to get vital resources to your neighbors who need it most. 1026 Ponce de Leon Ave. NE, intowncares.org

2 Want to make a big difference in the life of a kid? Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metro Atlanta builds one-on-one mentoring relationships that help young people tap into their own potential. You'll be matched with a child or teen and supported by a Match Support Specialist every step of the way. Your commitment impacts a young person's confidence and future trajectory. 680 Murphy Ave. SW, Ste. 1090, bbbsatl.org

3 The Atlanta Humane Society stands behind pets and the people who love them, from everyday support to crisis response. Community programs keep vulnerable animals safe year-round, while their Animal Protection Unit steps in during emergencies. Jump in and volunteer to help with shelter operations, open your home to foster animals in crisis or donate food, toys and supplies for pets in need. 1551 Perry Blvd. NW, atlantahumane.org

4 Catholic Charities Atlanta hosts its Annual Soirée on Feb. 21 at the Georgia Aquarium, an inspirational fundraiser that has generated more than $3.5 million to fuel its mission. The organization delivers counseling, education, financial health services and more to neighbors in need. Attending the soirée or donating funds strengthens programs that help families build stability and resilience. 2305 Parklake Dr., Ste. 150, Bldg. 9, catholiccharitiesatlanta.org/soiree

5 Look forward to the 12th annual St. Jude Evening of Hope Gala on April 18, a night of cocktails, dinner, live and silent auctions and moving stories from St. Jude families. The night fuels lifesaving pediatric research and care. If you can't be there in person, you can still back the mission by donating online. stjude.org
